Article 2. Membership

All club members must also be a current member of the National Rifle Association and while on club property visibly display their current membership card.

Any citizen of the USA, 18 years or older is eligible for membership in this organization. Applicant must hold a current Federal or Virginia concealed carry permit, or has within the past year purchased a firearm from a licensed Firearms Dealer & can furnish a Bill of Sale and or agree to a criminal background check.

All applications must be endorsed by two members in good standing and submitted to the club Secretary. The applicant's NRA membership requirement will be reviewed. The applicant will be accepted into the club after a majority vote of the attending members and upon payment of the initiation fee and the annual dues as prescribed in the club by-laws.

New members must attend the range orientation conducted by a club Range Safety Officer and having read and understanding the range rules, must sign an acknowledgement form, before receiving their membership card and being allowed to use the ranges.

Membership includes immediate family members that are living in the same household. When using the club facilities, family members must be accompanied by the card-holding member who is responsible for their conduct at all times. Family members may not vote at any of the regular membership meetings.

Membership in good standing requires the attendance at three meetings & three workdays per year, or be assessed $15.00 for each meeting/workday missed payable with their annual dues.
